CAST NOTES

Brandon Graves (No Max) is thrilled to be returning to SLT for his second performance with Five Guys Named Moe! When not on the stage Brandon can be found educating young minds as the chorus teacher at Ebenezer and Hillcrest Middle Schools. Brandon can also be found coaching track with Hillcrest Middle School, and performing saxophone with the Camden Community Band and clarinet with the Sumter Community Concert Band. Many thanks to Eric for the opportunity, and to my family and friends for their everlasting support.

William Paul Brown (No Moe) is a native of Sumter. He holds a Bachelor of Music with an Outside Field in English from Stetson University. He has performed with the Stetson Opera Theatre, The Atlanta Opera, The Orlando Opera, and the Treasure Coast Opera Companies. His previous appearances on the SLT stage include John the Baptist in Godspell, Kris Kringle in Miracle on 34th Street, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in The Mountaintop and Ain't Misbehavin'.

Hugh China (Big Moe) is so glad to be in another production here at SLT. Another great cast and show. Thanks to you all for supporting everyone that has performed on this stage. Hope you enjoy "Moe" "Is you is or is you ain't"

Markelle Roberts (Little Moe) is very excited to be in his first show at SLT. He graduated from Sumter High in 2014, where he was active in the drama program. In addition to SHS Drama he has worked with Francis Marion University and Florence Little Theatre. Markelle is a barista at Starbucks and a soldier in the Army Reserve. He is elated to be on the stage again.

Don Allen Phillips (Four-Eyed Moe) has been in the arts for most of his life. Moving from the church choir to Sumter High's Concert and Swing Choir. During his military tour overseas he was assigned to the Army's Chorus. He credits his dance training to the Freed School of Performing Arts. This is his first performance with SLT and he is very grateful to Eric Bultman for this opportunity as well as the full support from family and friends.

Josh Thomas (Eat Moe) is appearing on the SLT stage or any stage for the first time. This is his first play. He is a native of Charlotte, NC. He is a music lover and says that he has enjoyed "learning something new and working on something that people will enjoy and bring them pleasure." Congratulations on your first show!

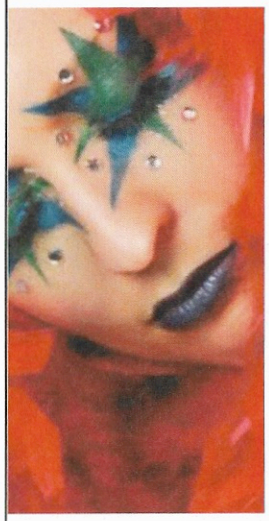
LA CAGE AUX FOLLES

Book by Harvey Fierstein,
Lyrics by Jerry Herman
Based on the play by Lean Poiret
Directed by Carmela Bryan



After twenty years of un-wedded bliss, Georges and Albin, two men partnered for better or worse, get a bit of both when Georges' son (fathered during a one-night fling) announces his impending marriage to the daughter of a bigoted, right-wing politician. Further complicating the situation is the "family business"-- Albin and Georges run a drag nightclub in St. Tropez, where Albin is the star performer "Zaza." Georges reluctantly agrees to masquerade as "normal" when he meets the family of the bride-to-be. But Albin has other plans, with hilarious results. "Carry your maiden aunt off to La Cage aux Folles...It's a family show, a glittering, fast stepping extravaganza."-New York Daily News
